

From: ME Conces
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/12/02 1:38pm
Subject: I am opposed to the government curtailing Microsoft's innovation in the business world.
Objectionis

I am opposed to the government curtailing Microsoft's innovation in the business world. Objectionists regret they can't keep up, so they spend our money going to court to prove that in essence Microsoft is better qualified than the opponents in moving forward with innovation in the computer world. I feel Microsoft should be able to place computers in the schools if they can do it. Other companies are only objecting because they didn't think of it first.

Mary Eileen Conces
meconces@NWLink.com